

News In 2010

20/12/2010 Bowler International joins the “German-British Chamber of Industry and Commerce” in London.

05/11/2010 Article about Bowler International published in the “Bicester Review” (Oxfordshire), the “Brackley and Towcester Advertiser” (Northamptonshire) and the “Buckingham and Winslow Advertiser” (Buckinghamshire).

28/08/2010

Bowler International supports the “The National Centre for Languages” by signing up for the “Business language Champions” scheme.

29/07/2010

Bowler International presented its APIk project at the Winslow and District Chamber of Trade Meeting. Chairman, John Knight said: “This project is a very good opportunity for our members and other businesses in the Area. It deserves our full support.”

15/07/2010 Bowler International is launching its new website.

11/07/2010

Bowler International joins the Winslow and District’s Chamber of Trade in support of the local business community.

22/06/2010

The first intern, Max Graefe, is completing his internship in Milton Keynes.

We now have an agreement with TGX/ZTS German as UK agent for the APIK project.

20/04/2010 BI (Bowler International) has generated an opportunity for overseas to spend periods of time in UK companies. We are currently tendering for a contract to secure this opportunity.